

In our continuing effort to understand the extent and scope of Migration & Discrimination, National Foundation for India and Reachout Foundation co-hosted a roundtable on Diversity and Multiculturalism on the 29th of March at NFI Boardroom in IHC at Lodhi Road, New Delhi. Jess Dutton, Deputy High Commissioner of Canada to India and Mira Chatt, First Secretary (Political) of the Canadian High Commission in India shared the Canadian experience of 'multiculturalism' with the audience. Kishalay Bhattacharjee, Senior Journalist and Author, moderated the discussions.

Joining the discussion were D.S.Poonia, former Chief Secretary, Manipur, Mihir Bhatt, Director All India Disaster Mitigation Institute and Senior Country Advisor, CDKN, Asha Rani Mathur, former Director INTACH, Festival of India, and Music Today, Sandhya Gupta from TBFF, Sagar Kaul Director-Operations, First Person News, Rakhee Bhattacharya, Associate Professor, JNU, Kandala Singh, Researcher, Anshul Ojha, TVE, Nandinee Kalita, Director(NE) ,CII, Annie Hazarika, Director, Speaking Tiger, Limaben Jamir, Sandeep Singh, Gazal Malik, Denis, Pakuo Vemai, Dalapoa, Vibha Lakhera, Reachout, MK Lal Gualnam, NFI, Agrima Bhasin, NFI, Gitanjali, NFI, Sunil, NFI, Barsha Poricha, NFI, Amita Pal, NFI, Monica Banerjee, NFI, Radhika, NFI